

Rural Routes To Be Consolidated On January 1

Same Carrier Will Serve Both Routes in Plan Worked Out By Postoffice Department

Beginning January 1, 1940, Montevallo will have but one rural delivery mail route. On that date both the old routes will be consolidated into one, and Mr. P. D. Pendleton, carrier on present Route Two, will travel the combined routes daily.

In an order issued December 6, providing for the consolidation, Mr. Ambrose O'Connell, second assistant postmaster-general, said:

"Based upon information furnished by a postoffice inspector, a plan was worked out in the department for the combination of the two Montevallo routes into one route, 62.95 miles long.

"No patrons will be deprived of mail service or materially inconvenienced in any other way under this plan, while a reduction of over $1270 per annum will be made in the cost of providing service in the Montevallo territory.

"Orders are therefore being issued placing the consolidation in effect January 1, 1940."

It is understood that the new orders provide for Carrier Pendleton, beginning January 1, to leave the Montevallo post office at 9 o'clock a.m., first going around what is now Route 1. This will bring him back to the old railroad crossing on the Spring Creek Road. From this point he will proceed to go around what is now Route 2 just as he has done in the past.

Mr. Percy Lee was carrier on Route 1 for many years. Since his death last spring, the route has been served by substitute carrier, Kirk Lucas. Mr. Lucas will continue as substitute carrier on the consolidated route.

Applications For Farm Loans Being Received

"Farmers in Shelby County seeking Farm Security loans for the purchase or refinancing of necessary livestock, farm equipment, feed and seed through the Farm Security Administration may apply at the County RR supervisor's office, located in the oil court house building at Columbiana, beginning now," announces James N. Dennis, county RR supervisor. The office will be open every day during the week from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., except on Saturdays. It will be open then only until 12 o'clock.

Farmers who have been unable to secure adequate credit to place their farms on satisfactory operating basis are eligible for the Farm Security loan to provide a new start in farming. The farm occupied, or to be rented, must be large enough to support the family and appear capable of providing a margin of profit necessary for repayment of loans based on sound and practical farm and home plans.

Addition To Be Built To High School

"The contract for a four-room addition to the high school was awarded to Monroe and Coker Construction Company of Sylacauga, Thursday, December 4, by the Shelby County Board of Education," announced J. L. Appleton, Superintendent of Education. Work will begin in about ten days. This annex will be constructed with PWA aid.

A two-classroom wing will be added at each end of the building with a basement under the east wing. The style of architecture will match the present building, even to interior finish. This addition has been needed for several years due to a growing student body and curriculum. The cost of the new construction will be $13,700.

Miss Rochelle Rodd Gachet Will Head New Service For Alabama Women

With the appointment by President A. F. Harman of Miss Rochelle Rodd Gachet as its director, Alabama College this week announces the inauguration of a Vocational Advisory Service for the women of Alabama.

"Alabama women have long needed guidance in their employment problems," President Harman said, in his formal statement, "and Alabama College, as the State College for Women, is favorably circumstanced to render this service to the people of the state.

"Sound vocational advice must of necessity be based on a thorough knowledge of employment needs in the state, and of the facilities for meeting those needs, and of the opportunities for training to fill the jobs available," Dr. Harman pointed out. The Vocational Advisory Service at Alabama College will carry on research along these suggested lines, on a state-wide basis, and will keep its information up-to-date.

Such research affords a sound background for the chief function of the Vocational Advisory Service, which will be to put the results of its studies and its advisory facilities at the disposal of Alabama women for application to their personal problems.

This service will bring together the job and the trained woman worker in a socially useful way, tending to reduce unemployment.

Miss Rochelle Rodd Gachet, who will direct this new arm of the Montevallo service program, comes to her work from Arlington Hall, Washington, D. C., outstanding among Eastern schools for girls. At

COLLEGE STEP-SINGING WILL BE BROADCAST TONIGHT

Federation Entertained By Columbiana Club

The Culture Club of Columbiana entertained the members of the Federated Clubs of the county at its first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon, November 28, at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Homer Walton, county chairman, presided over the meeting and Rev. J. L. Hallmark, pastor of the Methodist Church, delivered the invocation.

Welcome to the club women was extended by Mrs. Mims Roberts, president of the Culture Club of Columbiana, and was responded to by the various clubs.

A short program was given opening with the singing of the club song.

Mrs. Eugene Reynolds of Montevallo, assistant district director, talked on "Presentation of Federation Plans."

Mrs. Mildred White Wallace rendered an enjoyable vocal number. Reports of district officers and members reflected an increase in interest and activity in all clubs.

Dr. Eva F. Dodge of the State Health Department was introduced and addressed the assembly on the "Cause and Cure of Cancer." She emphasized the importance of discovering cancer in its early stages when it is curable. She also stressed the necessity of frequent check-ups by a competent physician in order to insure a healthy body.

Dr. Dodge is a fluent and gracious speaker and brought a most interesting and helpful message to those present.

Following the address by Dr. Dodge, the Club Collect closed a most delightful occasion.

HON. PETE JARMAN

Congressman Jarman Visits In Montevallo

Congressman Pete Jarman was in Montevallo a couple of days last week while visiting different places in this part of his district. At present he has his headquarters in Tuscaloosa and is spending his time in going over the district seeing his constituents.

Everywhere Mr. Jarman is most cordially greeted and complimented for the outstanding record he has made in his first two terms at the national capital. He has attained a record of service unequalled by any present or past member of the House in two terms. The Sixth Alabama District is fully appreciative of this record and the people are expressing themselves that way when Mr. Jarman comes around.

He will return to Washington for the regular session of Congress in January.

Farmers Of Alabama Approve Quotas

Auburn, Ala. — Alabama farmers approved marketing quotas for 1940 in the referendum on Saturday by a vote of 141,413 to 7,328, or by a majority of 95.1 per cent, tabulation of the results revealed today. The total vote was much smaller than in the referendum held in December, 1938, to allow farmers to decide on quotas for 1939.

Least opposition to the quotas was shown in Lowndes County where election commissioners reported only one vote against, as compared to 2,644 in favor. In Mobile there were three votes against quotas, Dallas three votes against, in Sumter seven votes, in Washington nine votes, in Montgomery ten votes against, and in Perry eleven votes against. Highest opposition to quotas was in Marion County, with 513 votes against, in DeKalb with 697, and in Cullman with 387.

Shelby County farmers approved marketing quotas by a vote of 890 to 146. The vote in Chilton County was 1,739 for quotas and 230 against. In Bibb County 1,132 votes were cast in favor of quotas, while only 58 votes were cast against them.

Presbyterian Minister To Be Installed

The Rev. Thomas M. Davis will be installed as the new minister of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, December 17, at 7:30 p.m. A commission from the Birmingham Presbyter, composed of Rev. P. Cary Adams, H. L. Laws, and W. S. Thorington, with Dr. A. F. Harman as elder and Mr. W. J. Kemmerly, alternate elder, will take part in this service.

Rev. Davis will speak at the Sunday morning service on the Christmas subject, "Then Came the Dawn."

Sunday School meets at 10 a.m., and the Presbyterian Student Association meets at 7 p.m.

Citizenship Day To Be Observed

A. H. Collins, Superintendent of Education, Will Deliver Principal Address

Plans have been made for Superintendent A. H. Collins of the State Department of Education to speak at the local celebration of Citizenship Day, today, December 14, in Palmer Auditorium at 11 a.m.

December 14, as the one hundred twentieth anniversary of Alabama's statehood, has been set aside in honor of those young men and women who have reached their twenty-first birthday since last June or will be twenty-one before next June. County and community celebrations throughout Alabama have been planned under the sponsorship of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers, with the cooperation of the American Legion, Alabama Education Association, Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs, Department of Education, Kiwanis, and Rotary. The local planning committee, appointed by Mrs. Fred Frost, president of the P. T. A., is J. L. Appleton, chairman, Miss Olivia Lawson, Mrs. W. F. Tidwell, and Mrs. O. B. Cooper as advisory members.

President A. F. Harman, in the Shelby County Democrat, said, "Let me say that I approve wholeheartedly any sane effort for obtaining a more active and intelligent citizenship. This need of an improved citizenship lies equally to local, state, and national government. Education, particularly at the higher levels, cannot well escape its responsibility with respect to this very important service."

The state sponsoring committee asks:

"Is the democratic way of life safe in Alabama:

"1. When less than half of the population of voting age is qualified to vote?

"2. When less than one-third of the population of voting age takes part in selecting officials responsible for the enactment and administration of the laws of the state?

"3. When only eight per cent of the population of voting age decides the fate of proposed amendments to the state constitution?"

Business Women To Give Children Christmas Party

On Tuesday afternoon, December 19, the Business and Professional Women's Club is planning to hold a Christmas party for a group of elementary school children. Each member of the club is adopting a child for the afternoon and will see to it that Santa Claus does not pass up her particular child.

The party is in charge of a committee of which Miss Elizabeth Allen is chairman. Mrs. J. A. Brown will have charge of the Christmas tree; Mrs. P. E. Woolley will plan the refreshments, and Miss Josephine Eddy will direct the entertainment. The entire party will be in general charge of Miss Anne L. Eastman, president of the club, and Miss Minnie L. Steckel, program chairman.

The Girl Scouts are donating the use of their Little House for the party.

CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM TODAY

The observance of Citizenship Day, which is today, December 14, should be done in a spirit comparable to the great meaning which it has for those who are just come of age and are ready to take their places as a responsible part of our democratic structure.

Appropriate exercises for this locality will be held at 11 o'clock in Palmer Hall. State Superintendent of Education, Dr. A. H. Collins, will be the guest speaker.

In bringing this occasion to the attention of our new citizens, chairman J. L. Appleton, of the local citizenship committee, says:

"The State of Alabama welcomes you as a voting citizen. Alabama College and the Montevallo P. T. A. invite you to a program in your honor on Thursday, December 14, at 11 o'clock, in Palmer Hall. We are asking you to assemble in the foyer of Palmer Hall at 10:30 in order that you may participate in the procession."

An outstanding speaker has been secured for the occasion and we are looking forward to your presence at this meeting. Your parents and friends are urged to attend this meeting also."

THE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Editors of the central Alabama area had a treat last Friday when they attended the district meeting of the Alabama Press Association in Wetumpka.

Hunter Golson, of the Wetumpka Herald, was host—and what a host! The barbecue dinner served at the Golson home was indescribably sumptuous, a joy unbounded.

The Golson hospitality was so darned good that it nearly spoiled the business end of the thing. But shucks, Hunter, you guessed right. We didn't care so much about the business that day, nohow. You gave us what we wanted and plenty of it. Long live the king! or sump'n, whatever is appropriate to say.

THE CANDIDATES ARE BEGINNING TO SPROUT

The weather nor the seasons has anything to do with the sprouting of candidates. When the time for election begins to appear on the political horizon they begin to sally forth, groundhog-like, to see what shadows may be cast across their intended path.

Last Wednesday was a noteworthy day in this respect at The Times office. We had visits from three whom we consider "very potential" persons in the prospective list.

First came Cohen Stapp, who is trimming his sails for Probate Judge of Chilton County. He had been gone only a few minutes when Congressman Pete Jarman came in for a little friendly chat.

Before the day was over who should appear but the affable Judge Len Walker from Columbiana.

Well, fellows, there will be lots of visiting for you to do in the coming months. There will be other candidates, no doubt, and we will have a grand time while the voters are looking them over and "deciding" whom they will choose.

While we realize it is risky business to 'promise' a candidate you will vote for him so far in advance (and we are not promising), yet we feel like saying that we would be willing to take the three aforementioned gentlemen for the offices they will seek and not have to go through the trouble of a political campaign.

That is not the way it is done, however. So we, along with all the other voters, stand ready to face the field and all who may wish to enter.

May the best men run; and may the best of the best win.

Mrs. R. H. Russell and Joel spent Saturday in Bessemer with Mr. Russell.

Old Flour Mill To Be Used At Six-Mile

In the Six-Mile community of Bibb County, there is a mill that should be the solution to many of the problems confronting Bibb County, there is a mill that should be the solution to many of the problems confronting Bibb County farmers, reports R. S. Kimbrough, county agent. John Battle, of that community, is the owner of a flour mill which will turn out flour from Alabama-grown wheat that will match or replace, for home consumption, any flour that can be bought.

An interesting sidelight on this flour mill is the fact that it was established in 1918 at a time when many farmers in the Bibb County section were growing wheat. However, as the price of cotton advanced the acreage planted to wheat decreased until today none is planted in the county. In this time when crop diversification is certainly needed in Alabama it seems that days, but to others it is a sign that farmers should take advantage of everything there is to get back to the old home-sufficiency setup. Kimbrough said a great many farmers in Bibb County will grow a little wheat next year for home consumption and these plans are being re-echoed in a great many other Alabama counties. To some it may seem like going back to the early Alabama farmers are going to make the most of their opportunities.

WPA Workers To Be Paid Before Christmas

While it would be impossible to pay all WPA projects before Christmas for all work done during the month of December, approximately 16,000 project workers in Alabama will receive their pay on December 23 who normally during other months, receive their checks after December 25, according to a schedule announced by Colonel W.

G. Henderson, administrator for Alabama.

Included in this announcement is another group of WPA employees to receive checks this month in advance of the usual date. This latter group of approximately 7,500 would normally receive their pay checks on January 2, 1940, but will receive them on December 30, 1939.

Explaining this further, Col. Henderson stated that all WPA project employees in Alabama who would normally receive their checks on December 24, 25, or 26, should have them by December 23. All workers who normally would receive checks on January 1 and 2, 1940, would be paid on December 30, 1939.

Thousands of other WPA project workers in Alabama will receive their checks on the regular date. Regular pay dates will be maintained through the first part of December and every WPA worker will receive a check during the first part of this month.

This re-scheduling of pay periods for this month only will enable these WPA employees to get their money before Christmas and will be accomplished with the cooperation of the treasury offices and is, however, dependent entirely upon prompt arrival of time reports from the various WPA offices over the state.

FIRST THEY WERE LOGS NOW THEY ARE BASKETS

THE photographic files of the advertising departments of some of the big factories often are a fruitful spot to hunt for human interest pictures. Here is a "Before and After" from the files of the Fruehauf Trailer Company.

The big unit at the bottom, loaded with logs, is being hauled by the Nansemond Logging Corporation of Suffolk, Virginia to the plant of a basket manufacturer. The upper photograph shows how these logs look after they have been transformed into baskets.

High-speed, modern wood-working machinery converts the logs into baskets in rapid time, and modern transportation units, such as these Fruehauf trailers, hurry them off to market with the odors of the forest still upon them.

County Health Officer Discusses Tuberculosis

When a case of infantile paralysis (Poliomyelitis) occurs in a community, the entire populace, as a rule, become much alarmed and are anxious to take every precaution possible to prevent the spread of the infection.

This is perfectly natural and as it should be, since some of the cases are followed by dreadful consequences. However, the attack rate, even in epidemic times, is rarely over 3 persons out of each 1,000. Also, not over 25 per cent to 35 per cent of the cases show any paralysis and many of the paralyzed cases have a mild form and soon recover use of the affected muscles.

No person has died of Poliomyelitis in Shelby County in recent years.

Tuberculosis, however, does not arouse the same degree of apprehension when a case is discovered in the community. This, notwithstanding the fact, that 34 people died of this disease last year in the county and there are now 67 known cases in the county.

Tuberculosis attacks principally the young. It is curable, in not too far advanced, and it is preventable, since practically the only way we can get it is from someone who has the infection.

Tuberculosis constitutes one of the major health problems in Shelby County. Hospitalization, or at least isolation of the tuberculosis patient, with proper education of the patient and family in regard to general care and precaution, and destruction of all tuberculosis germs that leave the body, is the first line of defense.

The check-up on contacts of cases is a very necessary part of the control work as this is the best opportunity to find early cases which are comparatively easily cured.

Since each of the 34 deaths had at least 4 contacts and each of the 67 known cases has a like number of contacts, this constitutes an undertaking of some magnitude.

The State Health Department, by making our chest clinics possible, furnishes invaluable aid in our fight against tuberculosis.

The County Anti-Tuberculosis Association has been of great assistance by helping to hospitalize patients, by providing supplies for patients, by purchasing a Pneumothorax machine for use in treating patients and paying physician's fees for use of the machine when the patients were unable to meet this expense.

The funds of the County Anti-Tuberculosis Association are derived solely from the sale of Christmas Seals.

Each citizen can do his or her part in this work of tuberculosis control and contribute to the safety of his own family by the liberal purchase of Christmas Seals.—E. F. Sloan, M. D., County Health Officer.

MISS JACK BOWDEN AND MR. HARDY TO WED

Mrs. W. S. Bowden of Monroeville announces the engagement of her daughter, Jack, to Mr. John R. Hardy, of Montevallo, the marriage to take place December 29.

Miss Bowden is secretary to the president of Alabama College. Mr. Hardy is a young business man, proprietor of the Montevallo Cleaners and Dyers.

Their many friends will learn of their engagement with interest, and wishing them every happiness.

Diseased Tonsils Cause Bad General Health

One of the more common conditions found in children is diseased tonsils and adenoids. The tonsils often become greatly enlarged, but may be badly diseased without being enlarged.

Diseased tonsils hold poisonous germs which may cause trouble, not only in the throat, but in other parts of the body. They frequently are responsible for rheumatism, heart disease, and some diseases of the kidneys.

Frequent attacks of tonsillitis may keep the child in a weakened condition.

The adenoids are located in the back part of the throat, where the nose and throat join. They can be seen only with a special mirror. When enlarged, they prevent proper breathing through the nose and force the child to breathe through the mouth. The air which is breathed in is not properly filtered, warmed and moistened and mouth breathing frequently changes the shape of the face and mouth, leading to dental difficulties.

A child with diseased tonsils and adenoids is much more susceptible to colds and other respiratory diseases and is much more liable to infections of the middle ear, which may lead to difficulty in hearing or a very serious mastoid infection.

It is often necessary to remove the tonsils and adenoids, even in very small children, to prevent the chain of complications which are apt to occur when they become diseased.—E. F. Sloan, M. D., County Health Officer.

Plans Made For Boy Scout Show

Plans are nearing completion for a merit badge show to be held by the Black Warrior Council of Boy Scouts at Tuscaloosa, December 15 and 16.

Troops from Tuscaloosa, Pickens, Bibb, Shelby, Fayette, and Lamar Counties will gather to demonstrate to the public various phases of Scouting activities. Patrols, stationed in individual booths, will perform in skills that are required for merit badge awards.

Adding to the general interest of the exhibition will be a series of stage activities in which each patrol will take part. First aid, rope spinning, pyramid building and Scout plays are only a few of the acts on the entertainment program.

Fire Chief Pete Matthews of Tuscaloosa is chairman of the activities and camping committee; all exhibition activities will be under the direction of this group.

From 1907 to 1920, the Christmas Seal sale was the joint effort of the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association. Since 1920, however, the seal has been identified only with the National Tuberculosis Association.

The National Tuberculosis Association was organized in 1904 and its first president was Dr. Edward

L. Trudeau, who founded the first permanent sanatorium in this country in 1885.

"White Christmas" Is Planned For Orphanage

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 6—Again the call comes to Methodists of Alabama and other lovers of childhood to come to the aid of the 151 children being cared for at the Methodist Children's Home at Selma, and again a "White Christmas" campaign is under way to raise $35,000 for that purpose, as well as for much needed repairs and improvements on the property.

The call for this White Christmas offering on the part of all Methodist Churches, Sunday Schools and other auxiliary church groups, has been issued by K. E. Cooper of this city, chairman of the Board of

S. Marine Corps.

The Marine Corps has been authorized an increase of 6,000 men, and it is being met at a rapid rate. According to the announcement, the Marine Corps has increased its strength over 3,000 men since September 1, but still has over 3,000 to enlist before the authorized limit of 25,000 is reached.

breakfast — fruits, cereals, butter, milk, eggs, and bread.

"Since the conditions under which the child must eat lunch at school are not ideal, special care should be given to the planning and preparation of this meal," Miss Simon says. "Without this balanced lunch a child cannot maintain his health and strength and do efficient work in school."

The following school lunch pattern is suggested by Miss Simon as an aid in planning for the school-age child:

1. Substantial foods. This might include egg, cheese, fish, or meat sandwiches, and bread and butter sandwiches accompanied by such foods as cottage cheese.
2. A vegetable or fruit or both occasionally.
3. A cup of milk. This may be used in other foods at times, such as cocoa, soups, and other milk dishes.
4. A simple sweet for dessert if fruit is not used.
5. One hot dish during the coldest months.

West Shelby Teachers Meet In Calera

The Shelby County teachers from the western section of the county held their regular monthly meeting in Calera, December 7. The leaders for the groups were: Mr. W. F. Tidwell, high school; Mrs. Ulmer Fancher, upper elementary; and Miss Clara Shrader, lower elementary. They were assisted by Mr. Appleton, Mrs. Sasser, and Miss Lawson.

"Citizenship in the Making" was the topic for study. Miss Laura Conn and Mrs. Hilda Varnell had charge of the program in their groups. They were aided by various teachers who gave reports from the N. E. A. Journal, the state, county, and local organizations. During intermission an appetizing supper was served by the Calera P. T. A. to the visitors.

At the general session Louise Johnson, John Warren, and Earl Erwin presented a musical program under the direction of Miss Bess Rice. Mr. Poe, Mr. Ray, Mr. Lucas, and Mr. Appleton gave reports on the curriculum conference which was held in Montevallo, December 4.

In the intervening years she has been identified with the work of the American Engineering Standards Association, with a New York Advertising Agency, and for several years as statistician of the sales promotion division of the Alabama Power Company.

Missionary Society Has "Harvest" Meeting

The Methodist Missionary Society held its annual "Harvest Day" meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. P. Kelly, the president. The installation service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Shores.

Mrs. Kelly presided over a short business session which preceded the program, in which annual reports were given by some of the officers, the other reports having been given at a previous meeting.

Following the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. Kelly presented an interesting program on the subject, "Our Available Resources for Meeting the New Day," assisted by Mrs. Duran, who read the scripture. Mrs. L. C. Parnell gave the meditation, "The World Cry," and Mrs. H. K. Barr and Mrs. J. H. Henning gave talks on the subject of resources available to us, such as "In God," "In Human Personality," "In Fellowship," and "In Material Gifts." The president made her annual report at the close of the program, and led the group in prayer.

Rev. J. M. Shores conducted the installation service, during which time officers for the new year's work were installed. This impressive service makes one realize the deep responsibility of the acceptance of an office, for it represents not only consecrated service to mankind, but to God, and the strength and ability to fulfill the duties of a good officer must come from Our Heavenly Father.

At the conclusion of the service, the group sang "Close to Thee" and the meeting adjourned with the watchword.
